SENATOR SCHIMEK: For purposes of reporting the aggregate, yes, you would have to do that, and then multiply how many...by the number of senators who were there. Then when you get into this walk-in kind of occasion...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: How do you get that from the language, though, on the top of page 3? Or is there some other portion that's there?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: You're right, Senator. Entertainment expenses do not include the cost of events.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: See, I think they're an exclusion and not a pro rata. And I don't remember if that was...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: You're right.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: ...Senator Beutler or Senator Bromm. I just wanted to make sure there was some clarity to that.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Thank you. You're right.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Okay.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Thank you.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: There's been several drafts. And I...I would...I guess I think Senator Chambers' suggestion early on has kind of gone by the board a little bit, that we adopt this amendment. But I still think that's probably a good thing to do. At this point, it's easier for us to work through other amendments if you do adopt it. And so I'd urge the adoption of this amendment so we can work through the other areas. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Kristensen. Lights are still on with Senators Beutler, Jones, Brashear, and Vrtiska. Senator Beutler, on the Wickersham amendment.

SENATOR BEUTLER: I call the question.
